Opening in Nomad next week, Cloves Indian Cuisine promises to be an oasis of delicious upscale Indian food right off of Madison Square Park. Appetizers such as Lasuni Gobi with cauliflower florets batter-fried and drizzled with garlic sauce and Paneer Tikka made of housemade cottage cheese marinated in Indian spices and cooked in a clay oven promise to wow, followed by traditional dishes such as Tandoor, Naan, vegetable biryani and more. Be sure to check out the martini menu!
